G. H. S. Alumni Banquet Has 118

118 were in attendance at the 9th Annual GHS Alumni Banquet Saturday night. Welcome was given by President Clara Sorenson, after which the group sang "Grayling Will Shine Tonight". Dr. C. G. Clippert was then presented with a plaque in recognition of his 35 years of faithful service to this community. Another surprise presentation was made by Mrs. Elsie Larson on behalf of the Sisters and staff of Mercy Hospital. This was a bouquet of 35 red roses — one for each year, and also a gift for Mrs. Clippert. Jackie Norenberg played three solo selections on the accordion from the stage, then came down and sang the tables to accompany the group in singing "Bicycle Built For Two" and "Four Leaf Clover".

"The meeting was turned over to Harvey Began of Flint, as former class president of the Class of 1935, which celebrated their 25th anniversary. There were 14 class members and their wives and husbands seated at their own tables along with former teachers Mr. Bond, Dr. Poor, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cornell. Grayling "Man On The Street" Wants No State Income Tax

The "man on the street" in Grayling wants no state income tax. This was brought out last Thursday when Senator Charles Morris, candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, campaigned here. He buttonholed 36 people on Grayling's Michigan Avenue and only two expressed a desire for an income tax if Michigan needed more revenue. The other 34 preferred a cent raise in the sales tax. Grayling is the 12th town in which Morris has appeared and in which Morris has appeared and in which Morris has appeared. Up to this point the score is 4,449 in favor of a sales tax boost and 678 in favor of a state income tax.

In an interview, Senator Morris stated: "For instance, one man I met on my Main Street Poll said, 'The Federal income tax leaves you just enough to exist on while you are working.' It gives you back just enough to get on when you are through working."

Company Consents To Poll

The National Labor Relations Board has slated an election at Bear Archery Company in Grayling on Friday, June 10th in order to determine if a majority of the production workers wish to be represented by the International Woodworkers Union, AFL-CIO. Two union organizers began contacting Bear employees about the election of April and the union turned in to the Detroit office of the National Labor Relations Board, a petition calling for such an election signed by one-third of the company's employees.

The Detroit office NLRB contacted the archery firm and asked for a full list of their employees for the payroll period just past. When this was checked against the petition, the NLRB advised Bear that they could consent to an election or if they did not, a hearing would be held to determine if such an election should be held.

As Fred Bear, company president, was in Alaska hunting at the time and couldn't be reached the firm spokesman declined to consent at that time. However, a meeting was held last Friday in Grayling where representatives of the NLRB office, company officials and union representatives at which time the consent for the election was given and a date for the balloting set.

The polling will take place between the hours of 8:00 and 4:30 p. m. in the glass arrow department of the Bear Archery factory. Booths will be erected and the election will be under the strict supervision of the NLRB. Both union and company will have challengers at the booths.

The outcome of the election will depend if the union will represent the employees or if they do not. A majority must be had either way.

Grayling "Man On The Street" Wants No State Income Tax

I don't know whether this man is a Republican or Democrat, or independent. I don't ask that when I'm polling. Frankly, I don't think it makes any difference as far as freedom from the fear of an income tax is concerned. Last year, I said that an income tax would only pass in Michigan over my dead body. I'm still healthy. I'm known as the man who killed the income tax. I admit my part in it, thanks to my fellow Republican legislators whose pipelines are to the people in their districts and throughout the state. Tuesday of this week, Senator Morris announced his withdrawal from the race for the nomination as the Republican candidate for Governor. He gave as his reason the lack of funds to finance the race. This leaves the way clear for Paul Baggett, the only other avowed candidate on the Republican side of the ledger.

Red Cross Holds Annual Meeting

Thirteen members of the executive board of the Crawford County Chapter of the American Red Cross met for an annual meeting at the West Lewis Inn on Tuesday evening, May 24th. Officers and chairmen were elected as follows: County Chairman, Mrs. C. G. Clippert; vice-chairmen, Mrs. George Griffith and Mrs. J. L. Martin; secretary, Mrs. Leo Jorgenson; treasurer, Mrs. Carl Richardson, assistant, Mrs. Joan Clisset, and Mrs. Richard Lovely; Disaster, Floyd Davis; Home Service, Mrs. Anne Dobbyn; chairman, Mrs. Howard Eager of South Branch township; township assisting (assistants from other townships are to be appointed); Water Safety, Mrs. Carl Richardson; First Aid Instructor, Mrs. Joseph Hull; Publicity, Mrs. Robert Strong.

It was hoped that a water program can be instigated this summer, with the emphasis on safe boating and life saving when a suitable beach or pool is available. It was voted to hold future local drives in October instead of in March as in the past. This will mean that a drive must be held this year in October, because of the fiscal year ends on June 30th.

Members of the board of directors, in addition to those already mentioned, are Mrs. Maurice Gorman, Lewis Stillwagon, Mrs. Ben Garland, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Wakeley, Mrs. C. R. Keyport, Mrs. Howard Mead, the Misses Dora and Bessie Feldhauser, and Mrs. Thomas Morris.

Summer Camps Exempt From 4% Hotel-Motel Tax

Public Act No. 119 signed by Governor William G. Milliken specifically exempts summer camps from the 4% use tax on transient rooms which became effective on September 1, 1939. (Tangible personal property sold by summer camps is still subject to sales tax.) Also exempt and not taxable are rooms or accommodations rented for a continuous period of more than 1 month, convalescent homes, and institutions or other organizations dedicated to the care and treatment of the sick under medical supervision. Rooms furnished directly to the federal government are exempt provided an exemption certificate issued by the comptroller general is executed. Rooms furnished to state and/or local government, however, are taxable. Also taxable are rentals charged to churches, schools and other organizations.

Saturday Night Crash Injures Four Persons - Only Single Accident Mars Long Memorial Day Weekend In County

Despite unusually heavy traffic in Crawford County over the long Memorial Day week end, only one accident was reported by the Crawford County Sheriff's Department. An accident 4 miles west of Grayling on M-72 at 8:45 Saturday night resulted in injury to four persons and a total of $1,000 worth of damage.

A car being driven east on M-72 by W. James Olson, 43, of Clare crashed a parked car at the shore of Lake Margrethe. Olson's car after hitting the parked car veered off the highway, jumped the bank landing into the lake. It stopped about 100 feet off shore in between two and a half and three feet of water.

Olson told investigating officers of the County Sheriff's Department that a car headed west and passing him veered over the center line causing him to duck to the right and strike the parked car. Olson suffered lacerations about the mouth and was released from Grayling Mercy Hospital after treatment. More severely injured was the driver of the parked car, L. R. Smith, 51, of Southfield. He is still a patient at Grayling Mercy Hospital under traction for a severe neck injury. His son, Orville, 16, and friend, Joe Andrews, 15, also of Southfield were treated at the hospital for severe bruising, but escaped without shock and were released Sunday morning after being patients over night.

Local Business Changes Hands

The McEvers Motor Sales Grayling dealer for Buick, G. M. C. and Rambler became the property of James B. Evers, a year and a half later Roy bought his partner out and took over full ownership of the business. Asked what his plans for the future were, Roy answered, "Well, I can't fully retire. I haven't got that kind of money but you can bet if I want to go fishing for a day or two I'll be able to find the time now."

START NEW BUILDING AT SHOPPING CENTER

Another new building got underway at the Up-State Shopping Center on US-27 at Grayling's south side last week. The new building will be located just to the south of Marge's Beauty Salon and is being built by Aldwyn Kone, a contractor from Petoskey. It is expected to be finished in about three weeks and will be occupied by the Laundramat which are now also located in the Shopping Center. They found the building they that they occupy was a little too large for their needs. In addition to the new building, several new automatic washers of a design to handle heavier loads will be installed. When moving time comes along it is expected that the Laundramat will be closed for a couple of days for the exchange of buildings.

It is understood that Grover Carson, Shopping Center owner, has a new business lined up to take over the present Laundramat premises.

TORNADO SAFETY RULES

TO KNOW WHAT TO DO WHEN A WARNING IS RECEIVED, OR A TORNADO IS OBSERVED, MAY MEAN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN LIFE AND DEATH!!

I

There is no universal protection against tornadoes except caves or underground excavations. When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave, or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure. It should be kept fit for use, free from water, gas, or debris, and preferably equipped with pick and shovel.

II

DO NOT GO OUT TO LOOK AT A TORNADO

1. Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.

* If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

III

DO NOT GO OUT TO LOOK AT A TORNADO

1. Seek inside shelter, preferably in a strongly reinforced building. STAY AWAY FROM WINDOWS!
2. In homes: The southwest corner of the basement usually offers greatest safety, particularly in frame houses. People in houses without basements should find other shelter, preferably in a storm cellar, although a depression, such as a ditch or ravine, can offer some protection. If time permits, electricity and fuel lines should be shut off. Doors and windows on the north and east sides of the house may be opened to help reduce damage to the building.

IV

DO NOT GO OUT TO LOOK AT A TORNADO

1. In city areas: If school building is of strongly reinforced construction, stay inside, away from windows, remain near an inside wall on the lower floors when possible. AVOID AUDITORIUMS AND GYMNASIUMS with large, poorly-supported roofs.
2. In rural schools that do not have strongly reinforced construction, remove children and teachers to a safe place if time permits.

DO NOT GO OUT TO LOOK AT A TORNADO

On receiving a tornado warning, a lookout should be posted to keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for shutting off electrical circuits and fuel lines if the tornado approaches the plant. Workers should be moved to sections of the plant-offering the greatest protection.

VI

Keep calm! It will not help to get excited. People have been killed by running out into streets and by turning back into the path of a tornado. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight. Tornadoes cover such a small zone, as a rule, that relatively only a few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know about tornadoes though, "just in case."

Keep tuned to your radio or television station for latest tornado advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado, as your individual request may tie up telephone lines urgently needed to receive special reports or to relay advisories to radio and television stations for dissemination to thousands in the critical area.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Darroch formerly of 11586 N. Grayling Highway, Frederic, Mich., and husband of the former Miss June C. Lewis of Route 1, Box 228, Snead's Ferry, N. C. Before enlisting in November 1953, Darroch attended Frederic High School.

Estimate County Accidents Cost $930,000

The estimated cost of highway accidents and fatalities in Crawford County in 1959 came to $930,000, according to averages worked out by the National Safety Council.

According to James M. Hare, Chairman of the Michigan State Safety Commission, the estimated cost of Michigan's 1,469 fatalities and 198,771 recorded accidents came to an appalling $227,695,000, or nearly a quarter of a billion dollars, in 1959.

"The annual report of the Michigan State Police shows that 98 accidents occurred in Crawford County in which 6 persons were killed and 69 were injured," Hare said.

"In calculating the costs of motor vehicle accidents the Safety Council takes into consideration medical expense, wage loss, cost of insurance, and property damage," Hare said.

"More difficult to calculate is the cost incurred when a wage earner is killed or permanently injured by a hit-run or uninsured motorist," Hare pointed out. "The original hospital or funeral costs can be readily ascertained, but the many long-range effects of an accident caused by an irresponsible or uninsured motorist, such as possible welfare and aid to dependent children, costs much more difficult to estimate."

LIBRARY NEWS

The Michigan Library Association for this district met at Frankfort on May 18th. Those from Grayling who attended were Mrs. Arthur House and Mrs. Harvey Rowland, who are trustees of the Library Board, and Mrs. Harry Souders and Mrs. Augustus Funck librarians.

The M. L. A. are always planning for better service for librarians. This year they were discussing the possibility for better service through Library Processing Centers and Service Centers near Lansing.

There were resolutions of confidence and approval, that the M. L. A. continue on plans to be worked out. A number of States are already working under the plan and it is soon to be out and the Reading-Club for those going into the 3rd, 4th and 5th grade will begin June 13, and end July 30. Those reading 10 books will receive a book award.

Story-hour for the Kindergarten, 1st and 2nd grades or 3, 4, 5 and 6 years will begin July 5th ending August 11th, Tuesday and Thursday each week for six weeks. Time, 10:15 to 11 a. m. This gives a vacation immediately after school and time to attend Bible-school, for those who want to attend, and some free time before school in September.

The Sunken Summit . . .

To the editor of a small town weekly newspaper, the recent Summit Conference which was blasted before it began by an ugly-mooded Khrushchev, was a total loss before any of the three men, Ike, K. or Mac-Millan even left their respective countries for Paris.

Khrushchev, embittered by the fact that an American plane had been able to penetrate his country 200 miles before being downed, had to get back on the right side of the ledger with his own people. He had to do something tough. He, no doubt, was pushed along its path by some Chinese prodding too.

At the summit, there was no way for K. to go except to back down. A Russian can't do that, so the next thing was to settle the conference. Also we think he had heard of Eisenhower's open door inspection plan and having come up with no real or legitimate excuse or Russia turning it down, didn't even want to hear about it.

What will K. and the Soviets do now? Anyone's guess is as good as the next one including the big city correspondents who were in Paris and feel qualified as "experts."

We think the Reds will turn on a "fear" campaign against all of the countries where we have bases around their border. The fact that the U. S. plane did penetrate the motherland, makes Mr. K. really fear those bases so close to his onion-towered Kremlin. They'll bluff, boast and try some small incidents here and there. But mostly they will wait. As K. said at his press conference following the dismal Summit, "We have time, we can wait." This, an almost Oriental trait with the Russians, Americans find hard to understand.

Russia will wait first for our Presidential election hoping that we will elect a man that he can bully and if we don't, he'll just wait another four years. Americans when faced with a perplexing problem want to get at it and come up with a solution. Not so, with the Russians. They wait in patience. If it can't be done today, we'll do it tomorrow, or next week, next year, next decade or even in the next century, is the Communist way.

While they wait for their opportunity, we should go all out on better means of both defense and offense. Beef up our forces. . . be ready when Mr. K. or his successor feel Russia is ready. — R. W. S.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVAILANCE OF 23 YEARS AGO

June 3, 1937

Another school year is about to pass into history and 27 young men and women are about to finish their high school careers and stand on the brink of a new field to conquer. Commencement is a great event in the lives of these thirteen girls and fourteen boys. Graduates are Margaret Buck, Ervin Cady, Edwin Chalkley, Kermit Charron, Mary Gretchen Conline, Pauline Entsminger, William Elliott, Marguerite and Herbert Felthausen, Max Ferguson, Donna Griffith, Robert Hanson, Monica Hewitt, Stephan Jorgenson, William Joseph, Homer King, Leonard Knibbs, Elsie Mae LaMotte, Betty LaMotte, Mary Mon-sur, Howard Neal, Vivian Nellist, Richard and Donald Peterson, Loretta Sorenson, Evelyn Skingley and Dorothy Wakeley.

Of interest to hosts of friends will be the announcement of the marriage of Miss Marian Reynolds, daughter of Mrs. James Reynolds, Sr., and Mr. Ronnow Hanson, son of Mrs. Hansine Hanson of this city. It was the last day of last year, December 31st, that the young couple tied themselves away to Angolia, Ind., and there were united in marriage by Rev. N. E. Smith of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Although the weather was extremely warm Memorial Day the thermometer registering 97 degrees in the shade, the various patriotic organizations, the Boy Scouts, and school children braved the heat and turned out to pay tribute to America's war dead. As is customary American Legion Post 106 arranged the services, and carried out their ceremonies as scheduled.

Forest Bradov of Lansing was a guest of Howard Granger over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lauri and Miss Jenny Wirtanen spent Monday in Johannesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Lewis of Detroit visited Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Flower Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Schley of Indianapolis, Ind., enjoyed the holiday weekend at their summer home at Lake Margrethe.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Buckholte of Sarnia, visited the latter's sisters, Mrs. Lloyd Gierke and Mrs. Middle LaMotte over Memorial Day.

R. B. McDonald and wife, and Ray Clement of Detroit, visited here over the weekend. Mr. McDonald is building a new new lodge on the island, down river.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Wiium of Detroit visited in Grayling over the weekend, at the Peter Madsen home.

Benton Jorgenson and family of Ypsilanti visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adler Jorgenson, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. William Cunningham, Miss Clara Ingram and Donald Towns, of Flint, visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wolcott Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodbury and daughter Mary Lee of Bay City and Mrs. Leo W. White of Adrian visited Mrs. Clara McLeod over the weekend.

Mrs. Clyde Simmons of Iron Mountain was a guest of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wetz, of Dayton, Ohio, who were at their summer home at Lake Margrethe over the holiday weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Holst and children, and Will McCullough and son Charles, of Detroit, were here over the weekend. They were accompanied by Mrs. C. O. McCullough who will remain for the summer.

Clara Cook of Roscommon is spending a week with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cook.

Robert Coulter and Edward Oosthuis of Grand Rapids spent the weekend in Grayling visiting friends.

Fred Bishaw is assisting in the kitchen of the Plaza Grill.

Edna Schreiber and Iris Ann had tonsil operations at Mercy Hospital last week.

Claud Cardinal has just finished renovating and painting his ice cream stand, getting ready for the season's business.

Grayling certainly was hit with a hot-wave Sunday and Monday.

It seems incredible that the thermometer could have read 97 in the shade Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Edith Skingley and Al Golinick of Roscommon were quietly married in Roscommon Saturday.

They were attended by Rudy Berli of Roscommon and Miss Dorothy Wakeley of Grayling.

Apparently a lighted cigarette was responsible for an awning fire at the Avalanche office Saturday night.

The awning was practically destroyed and the building slightly burned and blistered. The fire occurred at about 1 o'clock in the morning. The loss is covered by insurance.

Little Richard Dawson, who is ill with pneumonia at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dawson, is reported as a little better today.

AMERICANA

Michigan's 'Mighty Mac'

Things To See

An old Chippewa legend called for an Indian brave to chop down a huge pine tree which would bridge the straits between Michigan's upper and lower peninsulas. Lacking a tree five miles tall, the feat was never accomplished—until engineers conquered the Straits with concrete and steel.

The mighty Mackinac Bridge has been called the seventh man-made wonder of the modern world. And it is truly a wonder; an architectural and engineering triumph of imagination over matter. Its sinuous strands of steel arch gracefully across the choppy waters of the Straits to form the longest bridge on earth.

Built at a cost of $99 million, "Mighty Mac" was opened to traffic in November, 1957, and since that time has become Michigan's top travel attraction. Millions of motorists have crossed the green and ivory towered span, and many visit the Straits area just to see and cross the mammoth bridge.

The bridge is a major spur to tourist travel in the state, making it possible for travelers to cross from one peninsula to the other in 10 minutes. Before, it took the better part of an hour for the ferry trip alone, not to mention traffic tie-ups that often meant hours of delay.

In its first year of operation, more than a million vehicles crossed the bridge—a 59 per cent increase over traffic carried by ferries during the same period a year before.

Many Michigan vacationers give the bridge a featured spot on their itineraries. Lower Michigan's two scenic lakeshore drives both terminate at Mackinac City, southern approach to the bridge, while the main east-west and north-south routes in the upper peninsula converge on St. Ignace, the northern entry point. The Mackinac Bridge makes Michigan's vast and beautiful upper peninsula even more accessible to vacation travelers. The sprawling U. P. offers an expanse of nearly nine million acres of forestland, more than 4,000 of Michigan's 11,000 lakes, and 1,700 miles of Great Lakes shoreline.

Improved today.

Edwin Carlson and family spent Monday in Alpena visiting friends. Brad Varmin and Miss Pauline Lietz enjoyed a trip to the Soo over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Chandler of Detroit were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Holger Hanson over the weekend.

Walter Hemmingsen and daughter Betty spent the weekend at the home of the former's sister, Miss Margrethe Hemmingsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Oaks and son Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oaks and Mrs. Margaret Oaks, and daughter Betty June of Flint spent Memorial day here visiting relatives, the guests of the Sanford Palmers.

No. 1 Mrs. Lawrence Hunter and daughter of Pontiac were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Gorman.

Joseph Stripe, manual training instructor at the new Chevrolet Master town sedan, bought of the Hanson sales.

46 YEARS AGO —
June 4, 1914

There was a nice attendance at the graduating exercises of the first graduating class of the Mercy Hospital Training School at the opera house Thursday evening. The class consisted of Misses Alice Cargan of Bay City, Catherine O'Leary of Lansing, Ontario, and Maud Tetu of this city. The stage was trimmed in green and gold the class colors and a large bouquet of roses, the chosen flower of the class, adorned a table in the center of the stage. Above the stage were the words, "Semper Fidelis," meaning always faithful, which was the excellent motto of the class.

Those of the Civil War veterans who were present at the memorial day services last Saturday were as follows: Wellington Batterson, Adalbert Taylor, A. C. Wilcox, A. L. Bond, Delevan Smith, O. Palmer, Thomas Chittigo, W. S. Chalkley, Lowell W. Hitchcock, C. W. Wright and D. Countryman. Grayling baseball team won a game and lost one in the opening series of the season Saturday and Sunday. The Loyal Americans were the opponents and the score for Saturday's game was 4-2 in favor of Bay City. Batteries for Grayling were Hale and Desy. Sunday Grayling walloped them to the tune of 11 to 4. Batteries for Grayling were Laurant and Johnson.

Guy Bradley of Detroit was a guest of Miss Ethyl Tromble over Sunday last. Miss Saloma C. Forbush of Peabody, who has a position with the Bay Shore Gas Company there, was home for a week's vacation with her parents on the Ward orchard near Frederic. Miss Nellie Shanahan attended the graduating exercises at Mackinac City last week. E. Forbush is the possessor of Jack McClain and family of Grand Rapids weekendend at the home of his parents, the F. J. McClains at Lake Margrethe.

Miss Mary Catherine Wilkins of water shapers are simply not compatible and never can be. In part, this cannot be denied. However, a given situation can always be improved to make such a situation more compatible as possible under certain circumstances, such as the Asable situation for example.

One cannot just throw up ones hands and give up. Fishing equipment to some other unfortunate soul, move to the city and go north on weekends only.

We live here, you and I, and this area provides us with our means of providing our families with meat and milk, and to sit back and be smug about such a situation can only be termed foolhardy.

This is what has been happening up to a few short days ago. Now the interested parties in this area are aware that something should and can be started along certain lines, and concerted effort has been pledged almost 100%.

Most everyone knows of the Asable Property Owners Ass'n, which now comprises 121 members, and is now well organized to assist in any worthwhile effort along the lines mentioned previously.

The meeting of all interested groups for determination of lines of effort will be at the Grayling Sportsmen's Club, Wednesday, June 1, at 8 p.m.

Be there, and help protect your area from the fate which has befallen such area and streams as the Grand, and others farther South.

Your effort in attending such a meeting will be appreciated by everyone, but mostly, by yourself, a few years from now.

Thank you.
Bud Stephan

ikes $2,456,000 To Run Local Cars

pecial to the Avalanche) York — Just how costly a has your automobile be-
With costs as they are to-how much are Crawford
y drivers spending a year to their cars?
answer is — much more before.
American Automobile As-sion states that the cost of ing and operating a car has a major expense to the is 60 million automobile
rs. Insurance, gas, parts and rs have all risen in recent years.
Current estimates show that the al operator, who has a standing in the popular-price range es 10,000 miles a year, spends 380 annually, equivalent to 13.8
ts a mile.

This is 1.8 cents more than the AAA found in its last study, covering 1958. The upward revision of these figures takes into account the price climb since then, as shown in Department of Labor studies.
In Crawford County, for this average amount of driving and on the basis of the 1,780 passenger cars reported locally as of the beginning of 1959, approximately $2,456,000 a year is being spent on car operation.
A breakdown of the cost, as revised, shows that the largest fixed item is depreciation, amounting to $750 a year. The next largest is property damage and liability insurance. Fire and theft coverage, license and registration fees make up the balance of the fixed charges.

The total, $955, is what the average driver must pay a year, even if he doesn't use his car at all.
Once he takes to the road he also incurs the variable costs — for gas, oil, tires and maintenance.
They figure out to 4.25 cents a mile, bringing the total to 13.8 cents a mile for 10,000-mile operation.
For those who give their cars greater use, it becomes cheaper on a mileage basis.
The 20,000-mile driver has the same fixed charges, $955, and variable ones of — $850, reducing the rate to 9.02 cents a mile. For the 5,000-mile driver, however, it is much higher, 23.4 cents a mile.
With gross business in Crawford County filling stations at $1,395,000 in the last fiscal year, according to latest consumer reports, no curtailment in local driving is indicated. It was $1,277,000.

Representing the Hartford Fire Insurance Company Group, Hartford, Conn.

1958 fall campaign, it was an issue during the 1959 spring election, and it will be a paramount from now until the Nov. 8 balloting. The two candidates for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, Paul D. Bagwell and Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo), have questioned Michigan's qualifications as a place to do business.

Democrats have fanned the fire. Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson, for one, challenged Bagwell to debate the economic climate issue.

"Mr. Bagwell shouldn't be allowed to drag Michigan through the mud again," said Swainson, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Many of those concerned with Michigan's economic destiny on both sides of the political fence have been doing some soul-searching about the wisdom of knocking Michigan.

Crawford H. Greenewalt, president of E. J. du Pont de Nemours & Co., said during a recent visit to a Michigan plant that the state's trouble was "politics, not poverty."

"We know that Michigan is basically healthy financially, and industrially wealthy," Greenewalt said.

The Bible for both sides of the economic climate debate is the so-called Haber Report, a study sponsored by the W. E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research and conducted by two institute specialists and Prof. William Haber, University of Michigan.

Democrats emphasize the chapter on Michigan's potentials. Republicans emphasize the chapter on Michigan's problems.

Most-quoted section of the Haber report is the one indicating Michigan needs 100,000 new jobs a year.

Most-ignored section is the one that says: "Guard jealously the good name of the state. Stop undermining its reputation by exaggerating its problems and minimizing its virtues. We have short-changed the state long enough."

Advising programs recommended last year by the Haber report generally were ignored by the 1960 Legislature. Study programs made out better.

The major recommendations, adoption of an economic growth act, was proposed by the administration but rejected by the Legislature.

The Legislature also declined to provide funds for a stepped-up industrial promotion program.

But many of the recommendations for committees to study reasons for plant movements, existing business conditions and other aspects have been adopted among the missions of some legislative interim committees, including the Committee on Jobs organized by Morris.

THE LOWEST-PAYING JOB on the State Administrative Board is the most-sought.

In 1958 there were two Democrats and one Republican in the primary race for lieutenant governor.

This year, at least three Republicans and at least five Democrats have made various moves to get their party's nomination.

Former Lt. Gov. Clarence Reid, one of the last Republicans to serve on the Administrative Board.

would like to return. Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) would like to preside, as the lieutenant governor does, over the chamber in which he once was a page boy.

Rep. George Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) has been waging by far the most lively campaign for the post. Democratic candidates include Richard F. Vander Veen, Grand Rapids lawyer and 1958 Democratic candidate for congress from the 5th district; Rep. T. John Lesinski (D-Detroit); William Coughlin, Wayne County assistant prosecutor; George H. Doherty, Flint labor leader; and Flint Mayor Robert J. Egan.

The job as lieutenant governor was a part time position until a few years ago. Pay has been little more than a legislator's salary plus a token payment for expenses.

Phillip A. Hart, who didn't need the money anyway, made it a full-time job and a springboard to the U. S. Senate.

Swainson is trying to step from the Senate rostrum to the governor's chair this year.

MICHIGAN DEMOCRATS have increased their voice in their party's national convention.

When Democrats gather July 11 in Los Angeles, the Michigan delegation will have 51 of the 1,521 votes, compared with 44 in 1956.

Republicans added delegate strength to seven states. Michigan was not among them and will have 46 votes again.

ing Mrs. Pat Skinner of Houghton Lake was the demonstrator.

In a letter to her mother, Mrs. Harry Horton of Frederic, Mrs. Ethel Pierce of Abington, Mass., enclosed a clipping which tells of her recent activities as follows: "The Massachusetts Society of Hospital-Pharmacists will receive a new gavel made by one of its presidents at the May meeting at the Brockton Veterans' Hospital. The presentation will be made by Mrs. Ethel T. Pierce of Abington, chief pharmacist for 12 years at the South Shore Hospital and one of two women presidents of the state society. Mrs. Pierce, who serves as chairman of the state legislative and insurance committees, has also served on the Committee on International Pharmacy of the American Society of Hospital Pharmacists and as a delegate from the American Pharmaceutical Association to the second Pan American Congress of Pharmacy and Biochemistry in Lima, Peru in 1951 and in Washington, D. C., in 1957. She will again represent this group at the fifth meeting in Santiago, Chile, in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hull, of MSU, East Lansing, arrived Saturday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hull, through the 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hunter left last week on Tuesday for Lake Geneva, Wis., to attend the funeral of Vilho Wirtanen held on Wednesday, May 28th. They returned Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kittelman of Chicago were guests of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wolf, Memorial Day weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dendell and children Gayle, Mark and Jeff of Royal Oak visited her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Walker, over the weekend.

Local Incomes Surmount Rise In Living Costs

(Special to the Avalanche)
New York — Some idea of the extent to which taxes and inflation affect the income of the average wage-earner in Crawford County may be obtained from a new study released by the National Industrial Conference Board.

It shows that he gets less than half the mileage out of his dollar that he would have gotten in 1939. Take the figures on net income in Crawford County, compiled by the Standard Rate and Data Service for the last fiscal year. They averaged $2,807 per household. Adjusted to gross amounts, before tax and social security deductions, they show that the earned income locally was $3,080 per-household.

A married man with two children, who had such earnings available to him in 1939, would have had to pay $31 in Federal income and social security taxes, the study reveals. There would have been left a comfortable $3,049 to take care of other taxes, including State and local, food, shelter, clothing and the rest.

Today, in contrast, a man in that bracket must turn back $150 in U. S. income and social security taxes. This cuts his spending income, out of which he must pay other taxes, to a net of $2,930.

But that is not the whole story. He is at another disadvantage, for this money will not buy as much as it did in 1939.

From it must be deducted an additional $1,450, which represents loss in purchasing power, as determined by the Conference Board study.

All boiled down, the average Crawford County wage earner, if he could have had an income like his present one during the 1939 era, would have had an effective $7,270 a year, based on present day costs.

Conversely, the $5,000-a-year man of 1939, would have to be earning $12,037 now to be left with the same purchasing power after Federal taxes and inflation have taken their shares.

The $3,000 income of 1939 could be no less than $7,155 today.

to break even in terms of former purchasing power states the board. Despite high taxes and inflation, however, living standards locally are better today. The answer is that incomes have risen faster than costs have.

FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS

Should Parents Choose Teenage Friends?

By C. D. Smith

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION: "If your mother or father consider your association with a particular person or group is undesirable, what can you do about it?"

THE ANSWER: We think that the most important consideration is that of determining why the parents object to this person or group. Parents (and we know that this comprises the majority) usually have only the best interests of their children at heart when they insist that an individual or a group is objectionable. Foolish as sometimes parents don't tell their children the whole truth about this individual or group,

In this life, we often live in a state that is not good for us. This statement seems to refer to food, but it also includes people. Bad people are not bad all the way through. Many of them are charming, gracious, good looking and intelligent. They can have all these appearances, and still be dishonest or sinful individuals.

While subject to the authority of their parents, teenagers should follow their parents' wishes. The best way for teenagers and their parents to reach agreement as friends is by mutual confidence in each other and by "talking things out." Each must be honest and truthful. One of the problems, as stated above, is that parents often think the truth too "awful" for their children to hear and consequently try to cut their children's undesirable friendships with the mere statement "Don't associate with them." The reason is that I said for you not to, and that's all the reason you need.

The reason is probably a good one, but the teenager has no way of knowing it without being told.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, NATIONAL WEEKLY NEWSPAPER SERVICE, FRANKFORD, KY.
